Subject: LOS ANGELES HIGH SCHOOL HISTORY TEXTBOOK CONTENT CHANGE

pp.857-866/ pp914-920 [The Japanese Empire and its use of "Sex Slaves"]

[We should make this letter as short as possible; but there will be much enlightenment, if you will have read the whole thing; thus, we tried to add what might be relevant for you to shed light.]

We urge you that you DELETE THE CONTROVERSIAL PARTS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL TEXTBOOK [pp 857-866/ pp 914-920], WHICH ARE NOT VERIFIED AS FACTS UNTIL THEY ARE THOROUGHLY RESEARCHED [the text content and the facts don't match....].

Those high school students are still tender at heart and some subject like 'prostitutes' should NOT be written up in a high school textbook. It's better to save this until they go to college or the work place, particularly when it's not a fact but hearsay and the court of 'world opinion' without any foundation of truths to back up the content of the textbook. *

The educators have a sacred mission to teach students only the truth, so that the future leaders of America can shed light from knowing the truth as future lessons. It's not fair to point a finger at one nation alone, Japan, while so many other nations had similar experience and problems. **

Because Japan attacked Pearl Harbor,  Japan is evil, treacherous and not trustworthy; and what Japan says doesn't matter; hence, what the ethnic Chinese and Koreans say must be always right and true. This premise is not a guarantee for truth; actually it's dangerous when one must bring down judgment on this premise; we'd explain later.

The problem is that American politicians, judges, educators and the general public (including the United Nations' attorney) all seem to trust the testimonies of Korean comfort women, who were coached to falsify the testimonies by a powerful organization in Korea [Yu-ha Park's book: "THE COMFORT WOMEN OF THE EMPIRE" reports the truth with photographed documents]. The comfort women put their ages as 15 or 16 rather than 20 or 25, which Americans believe [Dr. Mera's book: "COMFORT WOMEN, NOT SEX SLAVES"], so the women could get more sympathy and make Japan look worse [a photographed document about the ages in the book]. The book also explains that the U.S. Government's "Interagency Work Group Report [= IWG Report] had the biggest investigations about the Japanese war crimes during World War II, involving the whole U.S. government agencies such as FBI, CIA, the Security Council, etc., which was requested by 'the Global Alliance for Preserving the History of World War II,' which is supported by the Communist Chinese government, as China's propaganda vehicle in the U.S.

The investigations [=IWG Report] took 7 years, costing the American taxpayers $30 million.... The Verdict? Japan was NOT guilty to their disappointment. Still the comfort woman statue/monument building persists in 2015 into 2016, 9 years after the verdict. What is going on? Understanding of the undercurrent is not revealed in general. But we can tell from the reliable documents that this is a scheme by the Communist Chinese government to put Japan into political oblivion, * so that China can be the #1 leader in East Asia, rivaling the US presence in the region, now that China has accumulated wealth owing to the trading with the U.S. ["Interview with MICHAEL YON", a U.S. veteran and award winning journalist]. You might have read in the NY Times and Time magazine that China was flexing its muscle sending out the newest big warship, cruising along the coastlines of South Korea, Japan, the Philippines, Vietnam, Indonesia, etc. menacing those nations, who voiced their concerns to the US Government. That is a picture of China. About the biggest investigations by the Clinton Administration mentioned earlier? Clinton received $2 million from the Communist Chinese government as 'campaign' money; Al Gore, the Vice President, was obliged to testify about it before Congress. Two weeks before he was leaving the White house, Clinton signed ANOTHER 10 YEARS OF 'MOST FAVORED NATION TRADE' pact with the Communist Chinese government; thus, the $2 million was to buy another 10 years of trading with the U.S. The money corrupted Clinton and his Administration, and it's backfiring in the American Government; China is getting richer, more assertive and arrogant bringing problems to the US Administration and to East Asia.

If you go along with the Communist Chinese government to make Japan look worse in the textbook than what she was, you are supporting the evil scheme of Communist Chinese government to put Japan into oblivion instead of remaining the leading democratic nation in Asia. General Douglas MacArthur put his heart, time, and energy to rebuild Japan to be a Democratic Nation in Asia, so that other Asian nations will follow the role-model he'd set up [there was a fear of Communism in Asia at that time]; so far, it has worked since MacArthur's reconstruction of Modern Japan: Taiwan, South Korea, the Philippines, Indonesia, Vietnam, Singapore, even India followed the suit. Americans ought not discard Japan easily, which has been the strongest, most solid U.S. Ally in East Asia. China is envious of Japan's invitations to the international G6 and G9 meetings; and China wants none of Japan's international reputation. [Japan seems to try hard to earn respect and reputation from the international community and tries to make peace with everyone; thus, meeting the demand of paying more money for the Korean comfort women the 4th time?.... [offering Y1 BILLION yen in December, 2015. It's like an unwise parent responding to his daughter's temper tantrum at a store: he'd ease her noise with more candies to calm her down to avoid embarrassment in public; but she'd have the same problem all over again.]

We don't follow what China demands [such as a textbook content change (for their purpose) and building so many more comfort woman monuments], so that China can come out as the top Asian leader. CHINA MUST RETURN TIBET TO THE TIBETANS before China demands anything. China has NO reason to violate a tiny nation living in peace in high mountain area. ["RETURN TIBET WHILE DALAI LAMA IS ALIVE...."]

The LAST EMPEROR [a Chinese movie] had a B/W film clip from the documentary = men in military uniform [as if Japanese soldiers] shooting civilians. But that exact clip was a wrong presentation: that was the Nationalist Chinese {Chiang Kai-shek's men, later moved to Taiwan} shooting Communist Chinese labor union workers, NOT Japanese soldiers [the Nationalist Chinese military cap had a white line, while a Japanese cap did NOT have it]. That was the year 1926; and today they present that same B/W film clip as a Japanese atrocity in 1937! The Massacre of Nanking was in 1937 [11 years later], and is something the Japanese military people must explain. According to an award winning journalist, who reports nothing but the truths, he states that in 1937, known as 'the Massacre of Nanking' [December 13, 1937], the story goes like this: China had a dispute with Japan over the seizure of Manchuria [northwest of Korea, part of China today], which Theodore Roosevelt had promised to Japan in 1908 [= if Russia took over Korea, she'd take over India: Root-Katsura Agreement]. The Chinese cut off their trade with Japan; a couple of incidents took place, which were escalated to a war. The Asian Indian historian, Rana Mitter, said that no one could say how many died at Nanking. Edgar snow said 42,000 people died including soldiers. Safety Zone Committee [NO Japanese, but Americans, British and Germans] stated that the Japanese paid for 22,000 burials [41 were ordinary civilians; 1.2% were women]; and the number of rapes was 360, while the Communist Chinese government claims that hundreds of thousands were killed; and Iris Chang's book, 'the RAPE OF NANKING,' states that there were over 20,000 rapes and 300,000 murders, while the population of the city was 200,000. When she was confronted with Japanese newsmen at a conference, she realized that she was writing a fabricated story, which was given to her through Communist Chinese government's lobbyist; and eventually she committed suicide. Her mother lamented that 'they' abused her. [Her book was supported by the Communist Chinese government, which supports the Global Alliance in California. Iris Chang was a free lance writer.] Out of 22,000 killed, many were soldiers; some were deserters and potential guerillas [all males] and many died from battle with their own Chinese policemen.

In the final analysis, the subject matter about sex slaves should not be in a high school textbook; I urge you to delete the unsubstantiated sections of the textbook; and a broader context to explain the history of the time is important: for instance, Japan joined the dominant western nations [Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia, the Netherlands, etc.], as part of the era of Imperialism, to get into Manchuria, because Japan had no natural resources, while its population was burgeoning; and wanted to make goods for trading, using raw materials from that region.

All is written, hoping the research is based on all true and accurate information.

PS: You might see my e-mail address twice, since a person in a hurry had to use my address to leave a message for you and had to run...

This is the first and only time I'm writing to you via internet.

Thank you for your patience.... [please, read the footnotes below.]

Sincerely,

Shizuko Koster

[* the students of Japanese ancestry feel persecuted, bullied, ashamed and depressed; and have fear of harm. even some teachers are bullying them. Eventually they might have a class action against the Los Angeles School System and the state, when fabricated stories are written as the truths, and some students suffer because of it.]

[ Great Britain controlled Shanghai (along with Hong Kong) through 1941, contracting Chinese women as prostitutes; France occupied Indo-China (Vietnam) using Vietnamese women; the U.S.S.R. soldiers raped 2 million German women during World War II, and others in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, etc.; German soldiers raped in Poland, the U.S.S.R, Czechoslovakia, etc.; the U.S. soldiers in the Philippines during World War II and Korea during Korean War using Asian women as prostitutes until the 1980s; and Japan in East Asia also employed contracted prostitutes. In short, this has been a universal problem for women since the ancient times. The textbook must either choose NOT to write about comfort women/ sexual slaves at all, or write up about every country which was involved with the use of prostitutes, just to be fair; no finger-pointing at one nation alone, please. Those comfort women employed were well paid prostitutes, who were recruited by Korean business men who ran the stations; NOT by the Japanese military people [the detail in the U.S. ARMY REPORT #49, Burma, 1944; Bruce Cumings' book: 'KOREAN'S PLACE IN THE SUN' - Cumings has a Korean wife; and Yu-ha Park's book: 'THE COMFORT WOMEN OF THE EMPIRE'. She was indicted by the South Korean government for her honesty.]

[ John Koster's book: "OPERATION SNOW": about a Communist spy, Harry Dexter White, in the FDR Administration who triggered the Pacific War. White worked under Henry Morgenthau, Secretary of the Treasury, who worked under FDR [White was an administrative assistant to Morgenthau]. The Stalin Regime couldn't fight Germany, Hungary, and Bulgaria on the Western Front, and Japan [Manchuria] on the Eastern Front at the same time. The Soviets had difficulty winning the battle in Nomonhan, Manchuria. What the Soviets wanted was that the US would start a war [the Pacific War] against Japan to keep Japan busy, while the Soviets would defeat Germany. This worked beautifully for the Soviets. Since Japan was too busy with the Pacific War, the Soviets transferred their military power to Manchuria [15%, later increased to 25% of the USSR military power] to Moscow, where Hitler had a battle of Moscow, which the Soviets won.; and the culmination of the investigations is the book, "OPERATION SNOW" = Japan was provoked into the War; and Harry Dexter White was the instigator of this war. He met Vatali Pavlov [Soviet spy handler] at a restaurant in Washington, DC in May, 1941 for their further work to start this Pacific War [Pearl Harbor Attack was December 7, 1941]. Both Japan and Roosevelt himself were for peace making, which made Harry Dexter White hysterical; but at the end, what White wanted was fulfilled. The Soviets call White, 'Our Hero!' and some former Soviet military officers as well as Russian and Polish anti- Communists state that what Koster wrote was true.

[* the Sankei Newspaper of Japan reported from Washington DC , August 31, 2013; reporter= Mr. Komori; the nature of 'the Global Alliance' organization is revealed. We quote from the newspaper article (translation):

'... the main character's face (of the organization) began to emerge: it's an anti-Japan organization by the Chinese Americans called the Global Alliance for Preserving the History of Sino-Japanese War [founded in California in 1994; later changed to "World War II"]. THEY DECLARE THAT THEY ARE GOING TO CONTINUE PROMOTING KOREAN COMFORT WOMAN STATUES AND MONUMENTS ALL ACROSS THE U.S.A.

'... the founder and the highest ranking officer is Ignatius Ding, reports the Chinese Communist Party's largest English newspaper, the CHINA DAILY....

Ding / (the Global Alliance) works with collaboration of mainland Communist Chinese government....

' the main purpose of this organization is cited: (Ding states): "WE ARE GOING TO FORCE JAPAN TO APOLOGIZE FOR THE CRUELITIES COMMITTED DURING THE WAR; AND PAY THE REPARATION...."

' BUILDING KOREAN COMFORT WOMAN STATUES/ MONUMENTS WAS FANNED AND GUIDED BY THIS ANTI-JAPAN GLOBAL ALLIANCE, WHICH WAS FOUNDED BY THE ETHNIC CHINESE AMERICANS. THE PURPOSE OF THE KOREAN COMFORT WOMAN STATUES/ MONUMENTS WOULD BE TO PUT JAPAN AND ITS PEOPLE TO SHAME TO THE WORLD...." '
